If you were several hours from medical help and something happened to you, your hiking partner or someone you encounter on the trail, would you know what to do?

2-Day (16 hour)
Wilderness First Aid + Adult CPR and AED
Training Class

The IPWA is excited to announce that we are coordinating with the U.S. Forest Service (USFS) and Front Range CPR to offer a Wilderness First Aid with Adult CPR and AED training class!

Who should take this class? Open to all volunteers & members (no pre-requisites needed). Wilderness First Aid training is good to know for anyone heading into the backcountry or other remote locations.

It is NOT required for our Summer Patrol Volunteers (although good to know). However, current 16-hour WFA and CPR certification is required for our IPWA Winter Patrol Program, and strongly recommended for our trail crews and sawyer (tree cutting) program.

Dates: The session will be two days on Saturday, October 26th and Sunday, October 27th (8am-5pm each day).

Location: USFS Boulder Ranger Station in Boulder, Colorado.

Cost: $125.00 per person for Wilderness First Aid with Adult CPR and AED training. Pay in full in advance or a $25.00 deposit is required to hold your spot, with the balance is due at the door (cash or check only).

Note: IPWA is pleased to offer this course at a discounted rate (the same course - not including CPR - typically costs $225-$275 through other organizations). This discounted class is ONLY open to volunteers and members. Friends and family can become members with a donation of $10 or more.

Certification: This course provides a 3-year certification in Wilderness First Aid (WFA) and a 2-year certification in Adult CPR & AED from ASHI (American Safety and Health Institute).

The class will fill up fast, so register as soon as possible at:

Important note about an error on the registration page: CPR is already included in the $125 cost so do NOT select the extra $15 add-on.
